

Dickinson College

Spring/Summer 2021

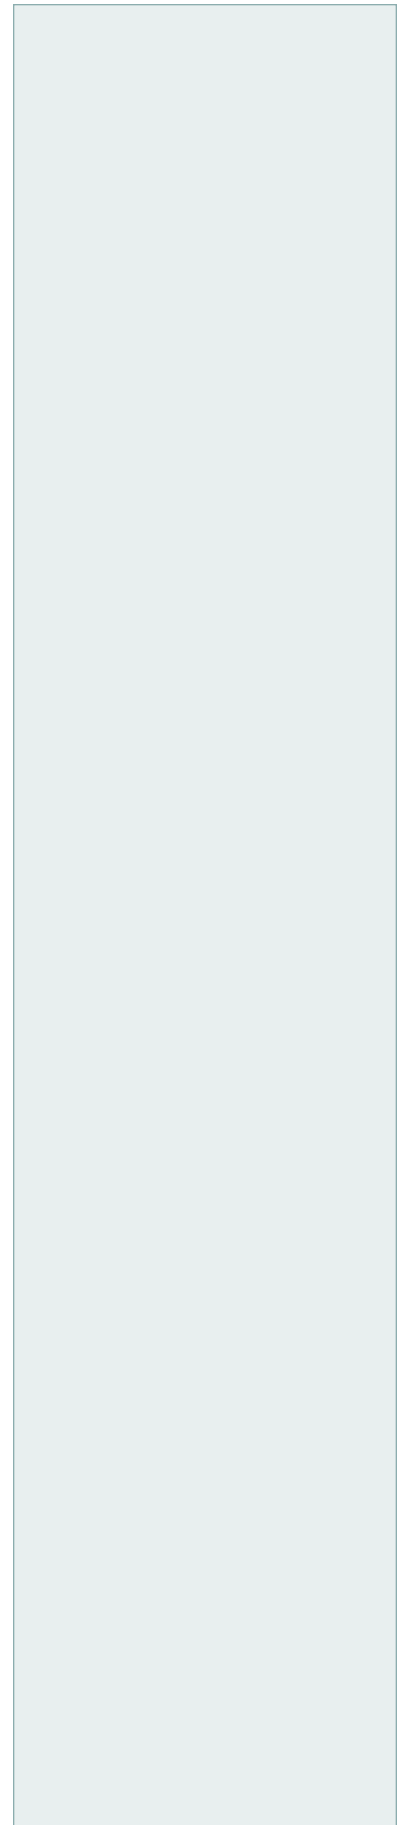

It's hard to believe the summer of 2021 is already nearing its end! We hope all of you — students, faculty, and alumni — are enjoying a stimulating and restorative season, whatever you are up to. Alumni, please continue to be in touch and keep us informed about your activities, no matter how small; we always love hearing from you! Send your comments to department coordinator Madeline Brown at brownm@dickinson.edu or LALC Chair Mariana Past at pastm@dickinson.edu. We look forward to seeing you all again in the fall and hope to be together. In the meantime, please enjoy this is Congratulations to [Name] who has landed a job as an account executive with TQL. As Director of the Marketing/Communications department, Dickinson has shaped me for life after Dickinson because it has allowed me to become the person but also let me experience the world and its diversity. There is a positive outlook from Dickinson, which you can apply to anything else that you do after graduation. Congratulations to Gabriella Farrell, LALC Class of 2021, who presented her research at the Middle Atlantic Council of Latin American Studies (MACLAS) 2021 Virtual Conference, hosted by the College of New Jersey on March 19, 2021. The overall topic of the conference was Life, Struggle, and Expression in Uncertain Times. Gabriella presented her research as part of Panel #2, Identity, Exclusion, Peace and Mobility in the Andes, hosted by Jeffrey Pugh of the University of Massachusetts-Boston. Gabriella's presentation was titled Invisibility and Resistance: Bolivian Migrant Women in Argentina and Gendered Labor Trajectories.

OTHER LALC FACULTY UPDATES

We express thanks and farewell to departing faculty member Hector Reyes Zaga (LALC, Dept of Spanish & Portuguese), who has left Dickinson to pursue other opportunities.

Congratulations to LALC professor Santiago Anria, who has obtained a fellowship to support his research during a full-year sabbatical in AY 2021-22.

Best wishes to Elise Bartosik-Velez (LALC/Spanish), who is directing the Dickinson in Malaga Program in Malaga, Spain for AYs 2021-2023.

And last but not least, a very warm welcome (again) to assistant professor (LALC, Anthropology) Amalia Pesantes Villa, (pictured in faculty research colloquium photo on page 2) who began teaching at Dickinson last year, but who was not able to move to Carlisle from Peru until this summer.

Congratulations to _____, who this past spring completed an internship with the Inter-American Dialogue, a think tank based in DC with the goal of enhancing cooperation in the Western Hemisphere. Carolina writes:
