

Sick Leave

Dickinson recognizes the inability to work because of illness or injury to the employee, or the need to care for the employee's injured or ill spouse¹, dependent children (must meet eligibility criteria for health benefits) or parents (including parents-in-law) may cause a hardship. In such a case, the college will continue the employee's wage